epractice.eu

is a European Commission good practice service for the eGovernment, eInclusion and eHealth professional communities.

The screenshot shows the epractice.eu website with a navigation bar (Home, Cases, News, Events, Library, Factsheets, People, Workshops, TV, Blog) and a search bar. The main content area is divided into several sections:

- On ePractice.eu, you will be able to: A banner with three icons: Meet (Create a public profile and connect your professional network), Share (Share your personal achievements, case and experience), and Learn (Browse and get insight into how the system works).
- Editor's Choice: A featured article titled "Fed-eView/Citizen - Listening to the citizens" by Christine Mahieu (FEDICT - Ministry of ICT and e-government), Belgium, dated 2 January 2008. The abstract describes a panel created in 2005 to measure citizens' internet usage.
- Latest News: A list of recent news items, including "EU: eTEN Project of the Year 2007 election" (2 January 2008), "HU: Legal security Improving in Hungary" (21 December 2007), and "HU: Paying customs with bank cards" (21 December 2007).
- Latest blog posts: A post from 21 December 2007 titled "Cost" with the text "I'm curious to know how much a workshop of this sort costs?".
- Communities at ePractice: A sidebar section with links to "eHealth at ePractice", "eInclusion Be part of it!", "Vote for the eTEN Project 2007", "European eGovernment Awards 2007", and "European Journal at ePractice".
- ePractice Workshop: A link to an "identity workshop" held in Belgium on 14 February 2008.
- Top Events: A list of upcoming events, including "12 - 13 February 2008 | Brussels: St: Mid-term IGABC Conference 2008", "12 February 2008 | Belgium: BE: Open meeting on the European ICT standardisation policy", and "24 - 25 January 2008 | Spain: ES: Second European Observatories Summit".
