

European eGovernment Awards 2009 submission form now online!

6 April 2009

European Commission and European eGovernment Awards Consortium

European eGovernment Awards 2009 cases can now be submitted online. All public sector organisations from EU Member States, EFTA countries and candidate countries are invited to submit their good practice cases to the awards scheme.

Submit your case at www.epractice.eu/awards

By submitting a case, you can share your experience through the awards scheme and support the European Commission in its mission to improve the quality of life of citizens through ICT, increasing trust in government and public sector organisations and contributing to enhancing the competitiveness of companies and businesses.

You can submit your case and experience in the following categories:

- ◆ Category 1            eGovernment supporting the single market
- ◆ Category 2a        eGovernment empowering citizens
- ◆ Category 2b        eGovernment empowering businesses
- ◆ Category 3        eGovernment enabling administrative efficiency and effectiveness

A separate public prize will be awarded based on the online votes cast by members of ePractice.eu (membership open to all).

Case submission is now possible on the ePractice.eu portal.

Participate in the information day

The European Commission also invites all those interested to participate in the 4th European eGovernment Awards 2009 Information Day on 21 April in Brussels (BE).

The information day offers a unique opportunity to learn more about this year's edition of the awards, the submission and selection process, and the European Ministerial eGovernment Conference, entitled "Teaming up for the eUnion", to be held on 19 and 20 November in Malmö (SE). At the information day, all those interested in submitting a case for the European eGovernment Awards 2009 will be able to ask questions and will have an opportunity to meet members of the European eGovernment Awards Consortium and European Commission representatives.

Participation is free of charge; however, you must register on the ePractice.eu portal.
